Seen, Heard and Done Among Those Who Go, Come and Tarry.

IN HIS GOOD TIME.
I go to prove my soul!
I see my path as birds their trackless way—
I shall arrive!
What time, what circuit first,
I ask not!
In sometime, His good time,
I shall arrive!
He guides me and the bird—
In His good time.

LEE AND JACKSON U. D. C. RECEPTION.

The annual reception held Friday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brawner, by Pensacola Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, to celebrate the birthdays of both Lee and Jackson, was a great success, attended by the largest number of people who have ever been present at similar functions.

Among the guests were a number of visiting Veterans from out of town and there was a general attendance of the local Veterans and members of the Memorial Association.

The entire lower floor was thrown open, making practically one ample room, all bright and cherry with flags beautifully arranged. On the polished surface of the table in the dining room white carnations and ferns, completed the color scheme and added to the pleasure of a charming service of chocolate and wafers.

Mr. and Mrs. Brawner were the most delightful and hospitable of general hosts, making every guest as welcome as though specially invited to their beautiful home.

Mrs. A. E. McDavid and Mrs. M. E. Batts welcomed the arrivals in the reception hall, while Miss Wittich and Mrs. Bonacker presided in the refreshment room, where Miss Irma and Miss Vera McDavid, Miss Lurline and Miss Vera Fulghum served.

Miss Lela Reese, president of Pensacola chapter, gracefully presented crosses of honor to two veterans, Mr. J. S. Jennings and Mr. B. C. Brewton, and the other Daughters, in a committee of the whole chapter, each did her part in making this one of the most delightfully informal and pleasant events in their history.

The whole program was enjoyable. Mrs. Brawner and Mrs. J. C. Pebley sang "Bonnie Blue Flag" so beautifully as a duet in the early part of the program that they had to repeat it later in the evening by unanimous demand.

As an encore for her violin solo, Miss Vera Fulghum played "Dixie," which brought out the old "Rebel yell" and an enthusiastic recall.

The male quartette, Mr. W. S. Garfield, Mr. Walker, Mr. J. O. Walker, who sang "The Soldiers' Farewell," when encoored, chased away the sympathetic tears they had evoked, by merrily singing, "Where are you going, my pretty maid?" to which there was a delightful recall.

The address of General George Reese, which is printed elsewhere in this issue of The Journal, is a stenographic report taken by Miss Vera McDavid for The Journal, and its completeness and accuracy reflect great credit upon that young lady, especially as it is her first effort at speech reporting.

MR. AND MRS. JOHNSON'S DANCE.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, of 417 East Gregory, entertained a number of their friends Friday night with music and dancing, serving delicious refreshments about midnight. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Croft, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Miss Annie Burlison, Miss Addie Burlison, Miss Hettie Church, Miss Cora Johnson, Miss Idell Kelley, Miss Annie Bell Groscup, Messrs. Jim and Paul Tonnor, Bennie King, Edards, Tony and John Flowers, Will Chesnut, Redix, Robert Lee and Robert Johnson.

CREIGHTON-MERRITT.

A brilliant wedding took place at the Olive Baptist church, Olive, Fla., Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. Robert Creighton and Miss Alice Merritt, both popular young people of that place.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and vines forming a beautiful arch in front of the altar, and the seating capacity was not sufficient to accommodate the very large crowd of spectators.

At the appointed hour the bridal party entered. First, the best man and maid of honor, Mr. Robert Merritt and Miss Annie Creighton, then the bride, leaning upon the arm of her brother, who gave her away.

At the altar the grouping of the entire party made a beautiful picture. The bride was exquisitely gowned in white tulle and silk, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Tate. They received many beautiful and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Creighton, parents of the groom, entertained at dinner the following day in honor of the bride and groom. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

A LOTTO PARTY.

Mrs. V. J. Vidal entertained Thursday evening with a lotto party in honor of her mother, Mrs. H. Roth, of Chicago. Mrs. D. M. Levy, of Mobile, and Miss Matilda Frolichstein, of Mobile.

Twenty-seven guests played and Miss Jennie Levy won the first prize, a stein, which she gracefully turned over to Mrs. B. M. Levy, the senior honoree. The guest prize was won by Miss Percival, of Baltimore, while the guest booby, a penwiper with a miniature telephone on it, went to Mrs. D. M. Levy, the consolation, a pair of battenberg shams, going to Miss Matilda Frolichstein.

At 10:30 the dining room was thrown open and the decorations of red and white proved attractive from every point of view. Red shaded candles and white carnations in shower effect decorated the table and a delicious supper of salads, sandwiches, cakes, ices and bonbons was served as a closing feature of an enjoyable evening.

MISS MAMIE'S BIRTHDAY.

Miss Mamie E. Oertling entertained a score or more of her little friends Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5, to celebrate her tenth birthday.

The home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. McKenzie Oertling, 609 North Davis, was beautifully decorated throughout the first floor in compliment to the little hostess, the color scheme of white cut flowers and green vines and growing plants prevailing tastefully.

Mrs. N. McK. Oertling hospitably looked after the pleasure and welfare of Miss Mamie and her guests and was charmingly assisted in serving by Miss Ruby and Miss Anna Oertling and their cousin, Miss Bessie D'Alemberte.

All sorts of games were enjoyed as was the beautifully served luncheon of sandwiches, hot chocolate, cakes, fruits and candies. The chief feature of the table decorations was the beautifully iced birthday cake ornamented with white lilies and green foliage, and which when cut proved to be a delicious "white cake, fitting food for angels and fair little maidens."

Miss Mamie's guests were, Miss Ruth Welles, Miss Marjorie and Miss Dorothy Bingham, Miss Bessie and Miss Gladys Shackelford, Miss Lolla Johnson, Miss Marguerite and Miss Ethel Dewberry, Miss May and Miss Eva Davis, Miss Lolla Daniels, Miss Grace, Master Alfred and Master August Gahlenbeck, Miss Tama Belle Hall, Master Manley and Master Clifford Broughton, Master Harry Gibbs, Miss Wilhelmina Saltsman, Miss Allie Davis, Miss Gladys Smith, Miss Rosalbe Tharp.

The Nomads meet with Mrs. L. S. Reeves this week.

The invitation euchre to be given in Library Hall Tuesday afternoon, at 3:30, promises to be a successful function.

The Whist meets with Mrs. McVay at Mrs. McGaughey's this week.

Mr. Charles B. Magill arrived last evening from Cincinnati and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Louis DeM. Blocker. Mr. Magill's pleasant impression upon Dr. and Mrs. Blocker's friends, made during a recent first visit, seems to have been mutual, for he returns to locate in Pensacola.

Mr. J. R. Keller has returned from Jacksonville, where he spent the week in attendance at the Masonic Grand Lodge in session there.

Mrs. George McGourin and son, Mr. Eugene Crawshaw, of Lawrence, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Oscar Anson.

Mrs. Henry Monk, who has been very ill, was able to leave her room for the first time yesterday.

The Progress Club gave its regular weekly ladies euchre and dance Wednesday night to the pleasure of the members and their guests.

A telegram received from Lake City last evening announced that Mr. Hayes Fernan, who has been ill of long time, is better, to the relief of his anxious mother and relatives.

Mrs. Ernest Luske, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., is visiting her sister-in-law, Miss Edith Luske.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Storm McGaughey entertained the relatives and a few friends very charmingly last night, complimentary to Mrs. McGaughey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Aiken's 47th wedding anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. W. McK. McClellan's first anniversary.

To really appreciate the advance toward universal education in the art of uniting beauty and utility, it is only necessary to compare one of the best grades of commercial calendars sent out even a decade ago, with those of 1905. The very acme of fine art in that line appears to have been reached in "The Lost Chord" calendar sent out the first of the year by the Pensacola Ice Delivery Co. It is genuinely artistic and worthy a place on the handsomest walls.

Mrs. W. D. Chipley has returned from Jacksonville.

A very happy party, consisting of Mrs. D. Hale Wilson, his little daughter Elizabeth, little niece Helen Wilson, and little nephew, William Kinneer went to Flomaton Friday to meet Mr. Wilson's father, and the children's grandfather, Mr. Samuel W. Wilson of Beuna Vista, Va., who came to spend the winter with them.

Mr. Bruce S. Weeks is expected home this morning from Jacksonville, where he has been attending Masonic grand lodge as representative of Pensacola lodge with which he is closely identified.

Mr. William A. Dunham, who is now in New York, is expected home Thursday.

Hon. J. Campbell Avery and sister, Miss Edna Avery, left Thursday night for Atlanta where they will spend a few days before going to Athens, where Mr. Avery and Miss Hart are to be married Wednesday. Mr. A. M. Avery, Jr. and Mr. W. A. Blount, Jr., left last night and Mrs. John C. Avery and Mr. Clarence Avery leave to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McGourin delightfully entertained the neighborhood euchre Wednesday night, and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stillman will be the hosts the coming week.

The friends of Mrs. H. L. Simpson and family will be glad to learn that no serious results are anticipated from her fall Thursday evening.

The many friends of Mrs. H. H. Thornton were delighted to see her able to be out yesterday, after a ten days' siege of la grippe.

Mr. Samuel W. Wilson, who arrived Friday to spend the winter for his health, was not at all well when he reached this city and his friends will regret to learn that he had a severe chill Saturday morning and is now confined to his room, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Kinneer.

The many friends of Mrs. Fred W. Dennis, Jr. will be sorry to learn that she is confined to her room by illness, but not thought to be of a very serious nature.

Mrs. Adele Davenport, her friends regret to learn, is very low and there are grave fears for the result. Mrs. Davenport is so dearly beloved by all who know her that her illness has saddened many hearts who earnestly trust she may be spared.

Miss Julia Knowles returned Friday night from a delightful two weeks' visit in Mobile, where she enjoyed Ben Hur and Paderewski.

Miss Fannie Bonifay has returned home after an absence of two months at DeFuniak Springs.
